Jerri Price-Gaines Elected to the
2008-2009 Foundation Board

PASADENA, CA (August 31, 2008) – The Tournament of Roses Foundation has elected Jerri Price-Gaines to the Foundation Board. Price-Gaines is the Director of Education and Community Engagement for The Orchestras of Pasadena. Price-Gaines replaces former Foundation Board member, Diane Scott, who retired from the Foundation Board after 15 years of invaluable service. Scott was one of the first community representatives elected to the Foundation Board when it was re-formulated in 1993.

In addition to volunteering on the Tournament of Roses Foundation Board, Price-Gaines is involved in numerous community organizations that advocate for arts education and literacy. She is a past Chair of the Pasadena's Arts and Culture Commission, Chair of the Partners in Education Board, Board Member for Theatre 360, Advisory Board Member for Shumei Arts Council and a Gala Committee member for Pacific Asia Museum's Festival of the Autumn Moon.

Professionally, Price-Gaines has been with The Orchestras of Pasadena since 1998. Her responsibilities encompass the development and oversight of the Orchestras' standards-based music education programs, the oversight of the Pasadena Youth Symphony Orchestra, and the institutions' extensive community engagement programs that includes both the Pasadena Symphony and Pasadena Pops. She began her career in California as a music specialist in the Pasadena Unified School District in seven schools for six years.

Price-Gaines holds a Bachelor of Arts in Music Education and a Masters of Arts in Non-Profit Arts Management. Her recognitions include induction into the Global Directory of Who's Who; Pasadena City Council Recognition for Outstanding Service to the Arts; Certificate of Recognition from State Senator Jack Scott for the program she developed for Pasadena schools called TEMPO!

The Tournament of Roses Foundation is administered by a thirteen member Board of Directors, comprised of community leaders and Tournament members, appointed by the Pasadena Tournament of Roses Association. Established in 1983, the Foundation is a non-profit corporation that manages charitable contributions on behalf of the Tournament of Roses Association. The Foundation receives donations and gifts from the Tournament of Roses Association, its supporters and the general public. Organizations or individuals interested in making a contribution or requesting a grant application may contact the Foundation at (626) 449-4100 or visit our website at www.tournamentofroses.com/aboutus/foundation.asp.
